LENT ONLINE RETREAT

One of the great successes of the ISC in 2018 and 2019 was the new Online Retreat. For Lent 2020 we hope to build on this success by introducing the Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius as the content of the retreat.

Grow in your personal relationship with God and develop your faith this Lent. Follow our Online Retreat either on your own, on your smartphone or computer, share with a local group or come along to the ISC in Glasgow for an individually guided version of the retreat.

For the Individually guided retreat here in the ISC there will be an initial evening meeting, after which each participant will meet with a prayer-guide once a week for seven weeks. Afternoon or evening sessions are possible.

WEEKEND RETREAT IN THE CITY

19-20 October

A non-residential, individually guided weekend retreat. This retreat will include some themed input and space for quiet, creative reflection. Tea and Coffee is provided. Please bring your own lunch.

PRAYER IN THE WORLD'S GREAT RELIGIONS

facilitated by Sr Isabel Smyth SND

The ISC in conjunction with the Scottish Catholic Bishops' Committee for Interreligious Dialogue, shall be offering three afternoons this year with experts from three of the world's great religions.

Rabbi Moshe Rubin – Senior Rabbi to Scotland:

Ravinder Nijjar - Sikh Chaplain, Glasgow University

Sohaib Saeed - Researcher and lecturer in Quranic Studies, Glasgow University

Each day we shall focus on one faith and how prayer is understood and practiced. There will be time to reflect on prayer and scripture of different faiths. Dates to be announced online: www.iscglasgow.co.uk/interfaith.html
