

Spiritual Conversation Course 2017-18 Information Sheet

Spiritual accompaniment in the Ignatian tradition is based on the assumption that God is present and active in our lives and that through reflection and prayer we can become more sensitive to this presence. It is often in our deeper conversations with others that this awareness comes to the surface.

Purpose of the course

The Spiritual Conversation Course is a complete course in itself. It is intended to enhance listening skills and awareness of God's presence in the many contacts and conversations we have in our day to day lives. It is based in the Ignatian tradition, drawing its inspiration from the Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius of Loyola. As a broad-based course it is expected that participants will find different uses for what they learn. A significant part of the course will involve ongoing discernment for each person about whether, and in what ways, they are called to accompany others in faith.

Topics covered in the course

Module 1: Introduction to Spiritual Conversation – Listening Skills.

Module 2: Personal Prayer – Ways of Praying

Module 3: Discernment according to St Ignatius.

Module 4: Spiritual Conversation – Applications.

Methods of Learning

- Personal prayer and reflection
- Input from the team
- Small and plenary group sharing
- Listening and observation in small groups (e.g. Triads)
- Guided reading
- One written assignment for each module.
- Ongoing self-assessment
- Regular meetings with a tutor

Regular informal spiritual conversation with one or two people through the year will be a helpful and significant part of the course. This will be explained at interview and/or at the beginning of the course.

Spiritual Direction/Accompaniment Participants are expected to be receiving ongoing spiritual direction/accompaniment during the course and preferably to have had experience of making an individually guided retreat.

Times and Attendance: The course will run monthly from 10.00 - 16.00 on Saturday and 14.00 – 18.30 on Sunday. Given the nature of the course, which includes group work and experiential training, a high degree of attendance is expected from participants. If for any good reason participants are prevented from attending a session, materials will be sent by e-mail. Where possible participants are helped by meeting with another member of the group to discuss that material.
